

De' Longhi S.p.A.

French Competition Authority investigation concluded: no sanctions were applied to the Group

The French Competition Authority has completed the analysis of specific conducts that took place between 2009 and 2014 by certain operators in the sector active in France who allegedly violated competition rules through the mutual exchange of information.

The authority concluded that the Group did not violate competition rules, as per Articles L. 420-1 of the French Commercial Code and 101, paragraph 1, TFEU, and consequently no sanctions were applied to the Group.

This note follows the information already provided by De'Longhi Group in previous financial documents.
