PRESS RELEASE

De' LONGHI SpA: preliminary revenues 2011.

The De' Longhi Group achieved consolidated revenues of about € 1,800 million in 2011, with a growth of about 10.8%; in the fourth quarter, revenues were growing by around 10.3% to about € 614 million.

The De' Longhi Group achieved consolidated revenues of about € 1,800 million, with a growth of about 10.8%, in line with the company's guidelines.

Both divisions, Household (*) and Professional, were growing, by about 11.3% and 8.8% respectively.

Despite the slowdown of the European market of small domestic appliances in the last months of the year, the fourth quarter showed a good recovery of the revenues' trend, if compared to the third quarter, thanks to the strength of the product mix and the protection offered by the geographic diversification: revenues grew by about 10.3% vs. the previous year, from € 556 to about € 614 million.

Furthermore, the fourth quarter was more favourable to the Household (*) division (growing by about 12.5%) than to the Professional one, whose revenues were substantially aligned with those of the previous year.

(*) comprising also the "Corporate" division.
