PRESS RELEASE

De' LONGHI SpA: preliminary revenues of the first half 2011.

The preliminary consolidated revenues of De' Longhi SpA for the first half 2011 amounted to about € 761 million, growing by about 16.9%. In the second quarter, growth was about 13.8%.

The De' Longhi Group, in the second quarter of 2011, has achieved preliminary consolidated revenues of about Euro 398 million, growing by about 13.8%.

Both divisions, Household and Professional, positively contributed to these results, delivering a growth in revenues of about 11.9% and 19.2% respectively.

Consequently, the Group's revenues in the first half of 2011 reached Euro 761 million, increasing by about 16.9%. The growth was about 17.8% in the Household division and about 15% in the Professional division.

From a geographical point of view, all main reference markets, both emerging and traditional (with the exception of Spain), have shown good performances.

It is worth mentioning the continuous positive momentum of food processors and coffee makers, coupled with a significant performance of the professional air conditioning.
